The CNC-Center for Neuroscience and Cell Biology - University of Coimbra and the iMM-Institute of Molecular Medicine - University of Lisbon are proud to organize the 8th European Synapse Meeting – ESM-Coimbra2022, which will be held at the Convento São Francisco - Convention Center, in Coimbra, in October 20-21, 2022.

The aim of ESM-Coimbra2022 is to bring together, in a stimulating environment, junior and senior neuroscientists working on synapses and to provide a forum for lively discussions and new directions, as well as to promote the free exchange of information and ideas in synapse research. This serves to create a European research community with an active role in promoting synaptic research and its funding, within the EU.

Based on previous events, ESM-Coimbra2022 expects to attract about 200 participants, from within and outside the EU.

We strongly believe that ESM-Coimbra2022 is an excellent opportunity to publicize your brands/products and we would like to count on your support to organize this event.

We are open to discuss the forms of support that best fit the characteristics of your brands/products. A commercial area will be made available, with wide visibility, where you can present your products/brands during the congress. The program also includes a period dedicated to short presentations by delegates of companies that highly collaborate in the event.

We trust you will find this meeting an attractive opportunity to increase the visibility of your company and will look forward to hearing from you.
